BDR-C -(BONE-DENSITY REGULATOR -herbalist Courter) The dream of many a person suffering with creaking, cracking bones and accompanying pain or osteoporosis (bone loss) or some form of bone malfunction is a natural solution. The ideal solution is to avoid the ordeal of a transplant or artificial implant. True, you can put in artificial hip sockets and ball joints, but the problem is, what caused the original condition still exists. You are only working on the effects and not the cause. The cause must be addressed. B.D.R.-C addresses the cause of bone and connective tissue malfunction and thus provides the solution This automatically suggests prevention for bone loss and connective tissue problems as well. Indeed, B.D.R.-C can be used for correction and prevention. This formula puts together an impressive herbal team of herbs for the first time to serve people and their pets. Its list of successes is equally impressive. Here are conditions for which it has proven its value: Helps restore bone mass. Skeletal structure reinforcement. Regulates calcium distribution.
