CELANDINE - Celandine is diuretic (removes excess fluid) and purgative (bowel purge). Recommended for rheumatism and gout sufferers caused by kidney trouble. It is a specific for liver disease such as jaundice and for inflammation of this very vital organ that has been called "the chemical works" of the body, as well as for swelling of the gall bladder. As a sedative, helps induce sleep and relieves spasms. Advised in cases of insomnia, anxiety, asthma, bad nerves, or for chronic bronchitis.* Helpful for people suffering from serious allergies and for conditions that can lead to hardening of the arteries and to angina.* Persistent reports of restoring sight and improvement of vision continue to be heard.* Perhaps the most dramatic is that of the parent bird rubbing a Celandine leaf into the empty eye sockets of their young when crows and other predatory birds have pecked them out. These same reports indicated continuous attention of this nature causes the eyes of the baby birds to grow back. The Russian Herbalist Denissenko claimed many cases of cancer cure with the use of Celandine.* DOSE:EXTERNAL USE ONLY as some individuals may be sensitive. Use in amounts needed to cover the area being corrected. Apply 3 times per day.*This product has not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration.
